EXECUTIVE COACHING

The Fortune 500's Secret Weapon - Executive Coaching

OUR APPROACH

Focused on the C-Suite

The executive coaching process is facilitated by a Magellan Executive Partner. We understand top executives and the ones on their way up. We understand how executives think, their potential blind spots, and the skills needed to be a leader worth following.

Unique Process

Our coaching process is focused on first understanding you as an executive and what it's like to be on the 'other side of you'. Using custom assessments and tools, our goal is to identify your unique roadblocks to getting to the next level in your leadership and coaching you through them.

Seasoned Coaches

Our team of coaches are all seasoned CEOs and want to be not just your coach, but your confidant.

Investment

If this is for you, your career is worth it. If you're building the bench strength of your team, it's worth it. Executive coaching investment is ~~$2000~~, $1,500 (State Chamber rate) per month.
